NEW BISHOPS

A DESTRUCTIVE FIRE

Mr. Chas. Rodfus Burned Out Last Night.

The Loss Will Amount to Three or Four Thousand Dollars.

The House of Deputies is to Elect Five New Ones.

THE NOMINEES' NAMES

Substitution Clause Relative to Marriage Has Been Adopted at San Francisco.

A DIVISION INTO PROVINCES

San Francisco, Oct. 12.—The house of bishops has nominated missionary bishops to be elected by the house of deputies as follows:

District of Hankuk, Rev. J. A. Ingle, now of Hankuk.

District of the Philippines, Rev. C. H. Brunet, now at St. Stephens, Boston.

District of Olympia, Rev. Fred W. Kastor, now of Deleque, Ia.

District of Porto Rico and adjacent Islands, Rev. William Calab Brown, now connected with the mission of Brazil.

District of North Dakota, Rev. Charles C. Purro, 11, S. A.

The house of bishops adopted the eleventh amendment to the constitution.

Consideration of canon 27, relating to the disciplining of persons marrying again after being divorced, caused a protracted debate, at the close of which the following substitute was adopted: "No person divorced for cause arising after marriage and marrying again during the lifetime of the other party to the divorce, nor any person marrying a person so divorced, shall be admitted to baptism or confirmation or be permitted to receive the holy communion until the written approval of the bishop shall be given.

Provided, that the prohibition shall not apply to the case of the innocent party to a divorce for the cause of adultery.

"And provided, also, that the amendment shall in no case be refused to a competent party in imminent danger of death."

It was decided to participate in the appointment of a committee of five bishops, five presbyters and five laymen to draw up and present to the next general convention of the church a canon on provinces, including a schema for the division of the United States into provinces.

On the part of the bishops there was appointed on this committee the bishops of Fortin Lec, Texas, Vermont and Los Angeles.

WOMAN RELEASED.

JUDGE HUSBANDS RECOGNIZED HEENE CLEMONS TODAY.

CHIEF ENGINEER HARSHAN PASSED THROUGH THE CITY TODAY.

Trainmaster T. A. Banks arrived in the city from Princeton last night in the special coach of Chief Engineer Harshan. He returned to the Louisville division this morning and will go out on an inspection tour as far as Central City. Mr. Harshan and party went to Fulton and from there they will go north. Everything is running smoothly at Princeton and the trainmasters' offices have been completed and the change has already proven much more convenient to the officials and to the train service.

RAILROAD OFFICIALS.

At the suggestion of President Thompson the salary of Secretary Bridges was raised to $720 a year. Mr. Thompson explained that it was not at the request of Mr. Bridges, but because he deserved it, and it was desirable to enable him to extend the membership of the association by personal visitation. He paid a tribute to Mr. Bridges' work, in which the whole association joined.

The adjournment was made "without day" about half past one o'clock.

The executive committee will select the next place of meeting, Hopkinsville having already extended an invitation. There is a sentiment, however, strongly in favor of Louisville.

Other officers elected were: Vice presidents—First district, H. S. Hale, of Mayfield; second district, R. K. Sneed, of Henderson; third district, H. C. Trigg, of Glasgow; fourth district, J. M. Knott, of Lebanon; fifth district, E. C. Boone, of Louisville; sixth district, J. E. Bohannon, of Falmouth; seventh district, A. S. Winston, of Lexington; eighth district, J. C. Caldwell, of Danville; ninth district, J. F. Barbour, of Mayfield; tenth district, J. G. Wm. of Mt. Sterling; eleventh district, R. M. Jackson, of London. Secretary—Isham Bridges, Louisville. Treasurer—E. W. Hays, Louisville. Executive committee for three years—H. V. Sanders, of Louisville; G. A. Williams, of Owensboro and P. I. McElroy, of Paris.

Middlebury, Cape Colony, Oct. 12.—Commandant Lotter, the Boer chief, was hanged yesterday by the British. Two Boer farmers who had twice joined the Boer forces were hanged at Vryburg.

London, Oct. 12.—Cecil Rhodes is critically ill of heart disease.

THE DOCKET FINISHED.

The docket for the coming term of circuit court was finished today, and everything will be in readiness for the court by the convening day, Monday a week. There are many cases that remained open, and the docket all told will amount to somewhere near one thousand cases. There are only about seventy suits filed since the last term, however, and the divorce and damage suits about balance.

ST. LOUIS TRAIN LATE.

Miss Mabel Rieko returned from St. Louis today. The train was delayed by a freight wreck between here and St. Louis, on the Cincinnati branch, and had to go back to St. Louis and come in over another branch of the road. It was three hours and a half late as a result of the accident.

MISS STONE MOVED THERE BY HER CAPTORS.

Sofia, Oct. 12.—Miss Stone has been moved by her captors to Turkish territory to escape pursuit. The capture is not very hopeful.

TO ENTER ILLINOIS CONTESTS.

There will be a big delegation of local marksmen to the big tournament at Du Quoin, Ill., next Wednesday and Thursday. There will be matches for both clay pigeons and live birds and the local rules of all external classes of contests. A good attendance from other Kentucky towns will likely be expected and some of the crack shot of Louisville will probably attend.

The following are the shooters from Paducah: Mr. Morris and Ben Starr George Roberton, Dr. Hamstrom and H. C. French and perhaps others.

A DAILY THOUGHT.

"He who greatly admires has the power of great scorn. He who greatly loves can feel infinite contempt." — Bishop J. L. Spalding.

Next Tuesday is supplementary registration day, and should not be forgotten. It is the last chance those who desire to vote will have to register.

Mr. Thomas W. Lawson, the Boston millionaire, has given $1,000 to Lexington charities. Mr. Lawson's generosity is to be commended. He comes of a big tattered class and he will always be popular in Kentucky.

The State Bankers' Association paid Mr. George C. Thompson, of Paducah, a high compliment in electing him president of the association. A better man could not have been found. The Louisville Times of yesterday contained a fine picture of President Thompson.

The Atlanta Journal, Democratic, says: "In expressing in a delicate manner his sorrow over the death of President McKinley, Arguello has shown himself to be more fitted for American citizenship than are some native born Americans." Which Congressman Wheeler and a few others might take to themselves.

The Democratic nominees of McCracken county arranged a list of speakers which conflict with Republican dates that had already been announced, and then invited the Republicans to participate. The latter were of course unable to break their own engagements, and now the Democrats with their usual consistency, are claiming that the Republicans are afraid to meet them in joint debate. It will take a bigger and brawnier lot of men than they to frighten the Republicans.

The National Association of funeral directors was thrown into complication at Charleston, S. C., by the mayor problem of the city who had been invited to address the visitors. Instead of a speech along the lines they anticipated he made a strong argument in favor of cremation, and against funerals, denouncing embalming as a transgression against nature, which decrees that bodies shall decay. If everybody thought like the mayor it wouldn't be long until funeral directors would quit the business.

and some having convulsions.

If the decision in the city of Golconda investigation is that the accident was unavoidable it will be what has been expected all along. The boat was probably not beautiful to look upon, and was doubtless not as safe as a man-of-war, but she had made regular trips for a number of years without accident, and there is no evidence that any other boat at the same time under the same circumstances would not have met the same fate. People who immediately after the disaster began to censure those in charge and to declare that the craft was not seaworthy, were merely expressing an opinion that subsequent investigation has failed to sustain.

Mrs. Carrie Nation does not enjoy a monopoly in the saloon fighting business. Over in Centralia, Illinois, the W. C. T. U. does things. The president leads the work by secret methods, and Thursday night judgments were foul. She has secured fifty convictions since June, and so persistent has she become that the saloon men are reconciled, and as a retaliatory measure have had the fine reduced by the city council to $2, so they can better afford to lead the strenuous life. And down in Tennessee the temperance people claim sixty-three anti-saloon leagues with a total membership of 5,000 persons. Yet a whiskey famus is threatened and prices have almost doubled!

The people of Metropolis are nothing if not gullible. Every since the pipe dream about the G. and E. I. railroad coming to Paducah was published in a local paper, our neighbors have been greatly wrought up. They really believed it. The Business Men's Association sent out a hurry up call for a meeting, and two held sessions to take the proper steps to intercept the road before it gets here. One would think from the proceedings that the residents are seriously expecting to get up some fine morning and find the road being built into Paducah with trains ready to exert and blow and pass right by Metropolis on the other side of the river. They are having all their anxiety for nothing. The G. and E. I. has no intention of coming to Paducah at present.

Ex-Congressman Z. T. Sweeny of Coloma, Ind., who was consul general to Turkey, believes that if the ransom is not paid, Miss Stone will be murdered, and her head set upon a pike pole in the nearest village. He says further: "I think the kidnapping of Miss Stone was done for political purposes. Her captors wish the United States to seek revenge upon Turkey. True to their promise the brigands will release Miss Stone if her ransom is paid. If not they will eat a finger off and send it to her friends. Then her ear and finally her head will be put on a pike pole in some little village in Turkey. I know them, know their methods of operating and know their history. I have had numerous experiences with them, and whatever may be their faults, they are honorable men as far as their words go."

The Democratic press on the eve of election, no doubt expects to make abundant political capital out of the Powers' case at Georgetown. That is what their man Friday, Judge Cantrell, forced the trial for. The Goebel papers will as usual contain garbled reports of the evidence, under flaring headlines, and will team with the malicious falsehoods that characterized them in the other trials. If the trial consumes as much time as the other one, there is not time enough to finish it before the term of court ends, and Judge Cantrell knows it. If the case is not finished it will mean the loss of hundreds of dollars to the commonwealth and if the trial is curtailed by the despotic methods of the partisan court, the probability is the defendant will not get as fair a trial as before, and that one was bad enough to forever disgrace Kentucky's courts of justice.

BURIAL AT FLORENCE.
William E., the three-month-old daughter of Mr. Wheeler House of Tennessee street, died and will be buried this afternoon at the Wheeler graveyard, near Florence Station.

LOCK-UP Keeper Menifee's fine black mare has a painful injury in her side, probably received by running into a wire fence, while on Mr. E. B. Johnson's farm.

NOT HEREDITARY
In the main, consumption is not hereditary; it is infectious. People are too afraid of heredity; better not think of the subject at all. Infection occurs continually.

Low vital force is hereditary; which gives consumption its chance. And infection plants it.

Between the two, the crop is a big one: about one-sixth of the human race, so far as is known.

We suppose it needn't be 5 per cent, if people would take fair care and Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil.

The care saves life in all ways; the emulsion is specially aimed at the lungs, beside its general food-effect.

Will send you a little to try, if you like.

SCOTT & BOWNE, 39 Pearl street, New York.

NEWS IN GRAVES

An Epidemic of Typhoid Fever in the Farmington Section.

THE CARNIVAL QUEEN

Court Ends at Benton—A New Bank at Clinton—Boring for Oil in Caldwell.

OTHER NEWS FROM NEIGHBORS

NEWS FROM MAYFIELD.

Mayfield, Ky., Oct. 12.—Miss Ethel Cook has been chosen queen of the Elks' carnival. Miss Cook is the beautiful and accomplished daughter of W. S. Cook, and has many friends at home and abroad, who congratulate her, while the Elks and friends are to be commended for the choice they have made.

'Twill be some time before we will see them once more. The Confederate Veterans had the town yesterday and today, an opera company billed for the 14, 15 and 16, a minstrel for the 15th, the circos will have the town and county on the 18th, the city belongs to the Elks from 21st to 25th and the protracted meetings, three in number, fill the interim.

The farmers are now all busy making sorghum. The mills are all running on full time and no time is being lost while the beautiful weather lasts. The crop is large and a fine quality is being made.

The people out in the Farmington section have been put to a great inconvenience this summer on account of water. During the hot dry weather wagons hauled water from here to that place almost every night.

There is an epidemic of typhoid fever at Farmington a small village, nine miles from here. There have already been several deaths and now fifteen new cases. The people are very much alarmed over the death rate.

BAPTISTS MEET

IN CENTRAL CITY.

Central City, Ky., Oct. 12.—The Little Bethel Baptist Association held its sixty-sixth annual session at Cherry Hill church, this county, yesterday and today. This body is composed of Baptist churches in Muhlenberg, Hopkins and Webster counties. The Rev. J. C. Topwell was elected Moderator and the Rev. D. S. Edwards clerk. The next session will be held with the Olive Branch of Ephphatha in Hopkins county.

A PROLIFIC FAMILY.

Benton, Oct. 12.—Uncle Jerritt L. Haynes, who died four miles south of Benton two years ago at the ripe old age of 91 years and two days, and his good old wife, who is yet living, and their offspring have a family record that is indeed interesting. This family consists of 112 members including children, grand children, great grand-children, 83 of whom are yet living and 29 are dead.

A saw mill owned and operated by W. Z. Lyles and Jeff Wyatt in Clarksville bottoms three miles west of Benton was burned. One of the saws was ruined but the rest of the machinery although damaged to some extent is not a total loss.

COURT OVER

Benton, Oct. 12.—Circuit court has adjourned here and the officials have returned to Paducah. The following implements were found by the grand jury: Gaming, 21; stealing, 7; breach of peace, 8; carrying concealed weapons, 2; grand larceny, 1; selling liquor to minor, 1; carrying deadly weapon, 1; selling whiskey without license, 2; adultery, 1; maiming and killing cattle, 2.

CASE SETTLED AT LAST.

Olin, Ky., Oct. 12.—The case of the Hudspeth estate against H. A. Tyler and others on an agreement of indemnity growing out of the old Fulton bank transaction, was finally settled at Olin in which the estate recovers in all, $5,000, and its costs in all the courts. The estate won in court appeal and the judgment rendered in the lower court was under its decision.

NEW BANK AT CLINTON.

Barlow, Oct. 12.—C. V. Hensler, cashier of the Deposit bank of the city has organized a new bank at Clinton. The capital will be $20,000 and it has all been subscribed. There will be about thirty stockholders, $1,000 being the largest share. Several Barlow capitalists are interested.

The new bank will be ready for business about the first of January, 1902. Mr. Hensler has resigned his position here to take effect the first of the year and will probably be at the head of the new Clinton concern.

OIL IN CALDWELL.

Princeton, Ky., Oct. 12.—At last, after a period of fifteen or twenty years has elapsed since the people commenced to talk of the oil prospected in this country, actual operations have begun. A well is being sunk on the farm of W. P. O'Hara, about three miles from this city, by the South Florida Oil Company. The company is well equipped to carry out the work, which began Monday. Their intention is to go at least 4,000 feet if they do not find oil nearer the surface. The company has leases in the county to the amount of 2,000 acres, giving them plenty of territory on which to work for a while.

DRAMATIC NOTES.

"Railroad Jack" is somewhat "on the hog."

Mrs. LeMoyne's troublous to have the title of the season. The advance sales are almost unprecedented.

The first minstrel that comes along will demonstrate to Monger English what it means to pack the house.

The sole of state at Louisville is progressing for the grand opera at the Auditorium October 21 and 22. The first night "Carmen," with Calve, will be given; the second night Emma Eames will sing in "Loehengrin." At the matinee Semirah will be the central attraction and "La Traviat" the opera.

An incident not a part of the play occurred at the Kentucky one afternoon this week when there was a matinee. The play was "Railroad Jack," and when the lion was produced on the stage and into a roar of two, several society girls on the front row, made a break for the door, and one had the misfortune to fall before she had gotten half way to the rear. The matinee ended, for them at least, right there.

A funny new bit of pantomime in this season's "Superior," is seen when Superior changes Pierrot into a robust man. He gets so uncomfortable he can't sit down. He gets into a draught and catches cold, and he sneezes so hard that everything breaks that he goes near. He never tries to lie down on a folding bed, but it turns into a boat. He becomes seasick, so sick in fact that he resolves to commit suicide. He inhales gas from the chandelier, but the neighbors discover the escape of gas strike a match, a terrific explosion occurs and flames shoot up from Pierrot's mouth like a volcano, and he is soon enveloped in a fiery furnace from which he difficulty extricates himself.

Richard Mansfield opened the Garrick Theatre at Philadelphia Monday night with the first production of his new play, "Beaumain," the dramatization of Booth Tarkington's fascinating novelette. Never has Mansfield been provided with a more fitting play. The arrangers of "Beaumain" even included opportunities for the display of all the Mansfield mechanisms.

With some changes from the text of the book the stage story of the nobleman disguised as a barber, who obtains entrance into the highest English circles, is filled with peculiarly humorous episodes. Beaumain is Mansfield through and through. In this new character there can be seen the humor and dignity of "Dean Brummel" and the romance of "Cyrano."

The theatre was packed and after each of the four acts Mansfield was repeatedly called before the curtain, and at the end was compelled to make a speech. Every one voted the play a success.

Miss Effie Shannon and Mr. Herbert Kelsey, who are to be seen here in "Her Lord and Master" are very popular everywhere. Just previous to one of the performances at St. Louis, the other night, Miss Effie Shannon told of a rather peculiar experience which she had during the Philadelphia engagement of "The Mote and the Flame."

"We needed a number of good-looking young people," said Miss Shannon, "for guests in the first and second acts, and we had secured nearly the required number. Just previous to the first rehearsal four young misses, gotten up in the very smartest attire, applied at the theatre for the position. Of course we were delighted to make such a lucky catch, and they were immediately engaged. They went through the rehearsal swimmingly, hot on the day previous to the public production only one of the quartet materialized. Mr. Kelsey was much put out, and spoke with impatience severity in reference to the discontents, whereupon their little friend and spokesman confessed that they were all four pupils at a boarding school, and had applied for a "mark." We were, of course, much pleased and in a quandary as to what to do, but the little spokeswoman was so lacking in interest and enthusiasm, and suggested that we write to the principal and ask for the girls, as a favor, and that a chaperon be provided to accompany them to and from the theatre. This was done, and they were all well with through the whole engagement at Philadelphia. When we bade them good-bye their little friend came to me and said, "Miss Shannon, I shall never believe, in future, that the people of the theatre are anything but ladies and gentlemen," and a short time after that I received a long letter from her, stating that she, herself, intended going on the stage to make a great deal of money. I am sure she has my hearty good wishes."

COAL! COAL!

The Week in Society.

The Doings of the Smart Set the Past Six Days. Pleasant Events and Personal Mention.

MODERN ROMANCE.

Information, speculation, fluctuation, ratiocination. Dissipation, degradation; reformation, or starvation. Application, situation; co-operation, restoration. Concentration,eneration, nervous prostration. A vacation. Destination, country station. Nice location, recreation. Exploration, observation; fascination—a flirtation. Trepidation, hesitation, conversation, simulation? Invitation, assassination, sequestration, cold libation. Stimulation, animation; inspiration, new notation. Demonstration, agitation, circulation, exclamation! Declaration, acceptance, osculation, sweet sensation. Excitation, preparation, combination, now relation. —Henry M. Blossom, Jr., in Novelist Smart Set.

VEILED PROPHET.

THE SOCIAL PROSPECT.

The social prospect is growing brighter day by day, not that Society has really embarked on its good yacht "Winter Pleasure" as yet, but things are being gotten under way for the voyage, and there is prospect of smooth sailing when the wedding clouds roll by. Just now the social atmosphere is a trifle heavy with these, and the more experienced marinier can hardly predict anything certain but the uncertain.

The evenings of the week have been enlivened by a garrison, and the various plays at "The Kentucky," which is giving Society somewhere to go, and to wear its good clothes. The clubs are beginning to entertain and the day time has been filled by various meetings. Some of the literary clubs were in full blast this week, but the card clubs are merely planning as yet.

Of course, later the charming debutantes will make the social horizon, with their presentation parties, and visitors will be imported to add to the city's pleasure.

DELPHIC CLUB.

The Delphic Club had the first meeting for the season on Tuesday morning with Mrs. Mildred Davis. It was an especially pleasant meeting and was well attended. The study of "German Literature," which will be the winter's work, was begun. The program for the year is splendidly arranged, and was the work of a Chicago program specialist. The program committee, Mrs. A. H. Meyers, Mrs. Louis M. Rieke, Mrs. Frank Parham and Mrs. J. C. Flomrny, deserve special credit for their able work. "Hardest German Myths and Legends" was the subject for Tuesday's consideration. Quotations were given from German mythology by the club. Mrs. W. E. Cave read an excellent paper on "The Nibelungen Lied," and Mrs. Mildred Davis told very interestingly of "The Epic of Odysseus," making a very delightful morning. It was decided to answer the call at each meeting with a German legend, or a quotation from some prominent German author.

A portion of the morning was given over to a short business meeting. Mrs. Robert Becker Phillips was elected president of the club, vice Mrs. Mildred Davis, resigned. The other officers are: Vice president, Mrs. W. E. Cave; secretary, and treasurer, Mrs. Louis M. Rieke.

Two new members were added, Mrs. Bradford Clark and Miss Kathleen Whitefield. The club numbers 28, and the members are: Madames R. B. Phillips, W. E. Cave, L. M. Rieke, A. R. Meyers, Mildred Davis, Frank Parham, J. C. Flomrny, Cook Hinckley, Samuel Watson, Lake Russell, J. A. Hasty, George Wallace, George Flomrny, Frank Scott, John Campbell, Lizzie Austin, J. K. Ferguson, Richard Baker, Bradford Clark, Misses Mattie Fowler, Lucy Robins, Martha Davis, Kathleen Whitefield.

COTILLION CLUB DANCE.

The Cotillion club gave a delightful dance at the Palmer house on Thursday evening. It was the first dance of the season and was graced by quite a representative crowd. The guests were: Messrs. and Madames Cook Hinckley, O. L. Gregory, James P. Smith, William MacLellan, George Journey, Harris Rankin, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. McElrath, Dr. and Mrs. J. V. Voris, Mrs. W. A. Gardner, Miss Susanna Hamble, of Lebanon; Misses Maribeth Davis, Martha Leech, Myrtle Decker, Mary Boswell, Anne Howell, Jane Hayes, Caroline Sowell, Laura Sanders, Minnie Terrell, Hatricia Terrell, Lillian Rantz, Emma Reed; Misses Margaret Nash, Frank Rieke, Louis Rieke, Jr., Roy Gailey, Stewart Sinnott, Frank Boone, Evert Thompson, Horace Hawking, Ingene McKnight, Dow Wilcox, Will Minnie, John Sherwin, Edwin Wilson, Edson Hart, Charles Boyd.

MAGAZINE CLUB MEETING.

The Magazine club was entertained by Mrs. Edward L. Atkins of North Sixth street on Thursday afternoon. It was the first meeting of the season, and was a most charming function. Mrs. E. H. Head was elected president for the coming year, and Mrs. Samuel T. Hubbard, secretary. Mrs. Thomas Boswell, Mrs. Bradford Clark, Mrs. Eli Boone, and Mrs. Charles Moenot were received as new members. Several of the charter members who had dropped out last year were restored and included Mrs. Mildred Davis, Mrs. James Rudy, Mrs. Robert Phillips and Miss Mattie Fowler. The club's membership is 25, including the president. The attendance was quite large, and there were several visitors present. The reports were exceedingly interesting and were from Mrs. W. A. Gardner and Mrs. John Campbell, on "Harper's Magazine" and Mrs. H. E. Reed and Mrs. Richard Baker from the Review of Reviews." Elaborate and delightful refreshments were served by the hostess and the occasion was most joyous in every way. The next meeting will be with Miss Carrie Robins of North Ninth street.

PADUCAHANS AT THE WEDDING.

The annual banquet of the Young Men's Christian Association on Monday evening was a pleasant social occasion of the week. It was held in the parlors of the association and the rooms were artistically decorated with flowers and plants in profusion. The banquet table was in the back parlor and was a triumph of artistic beauty. Delightful refreshments were served by the ladies of the First Presbyterian church who are famous for their success in all undertakings. Varied toasts were given and ably responded to, so soon delightful mastic was enjoyed. Quite a number of guests were present and the evening was most enjoyable.

SANS SOUCI CLUB REORGANIZES

The Sans Souci club met with Mrs. Will Gilbert of North Eighth street on Friday morning and reorganized for the winter. This club is not strictly a card club, each member entertains as best suits her fancy, "as you like it fashion," and some very charming entertainments were given last winter. Mrs. Will Gilbert was re-elected president, and four new members were added to the club, namely: Misses Anna Boswell, Mabel Rieke, Gertrude Asher, and Irene Scott. The club membership is now seventeen.

CINQUE CLUB DISBANDS.

The members of the Young Ladies' Cinque club met at the Palmer house on Friday afternoon to consider the question of reorganizing for the winter. It was decided to disband, if not finally at least until later in the winter when affairs had adjusted themselves, and there was more leisure at hand. Some of the members anticipated leaving away the early part of the winter, and so thought it wiser not to reorganize. Whether the persistent and multitudinous wedding rumors have anything to do with this decision can be more safely asserted later, but one would not be surprised. This club is composed of some of the most attractive and popular society girls and young matrons and gave some very swell entertainments last winter. It will be greatly missed in the social life of the town. Miss Elizabeth Blonot is the charming president.

In the death of Miss Mary Halloran in the summer the club lost one of its leading spirits, and they all feel that her place can never be filled.

A ST. LOUIS WEDDING.

A marriage that came as a decided surprise to Paducahan society was that of Miss Frances E. Higgins of St. Louis to Dr. Ralph Niedringhane of Granite City, Ill., on Thursday afternoon. Miss Higgins is a very beautiful and popular visitor in Paducah and has made many warm friends here during her several visits to the Misses Paxton. She is a Kentuckian girl, formerly of Louisville, and the family has been living in St. Louis only of recent years. She is the daughter of Frank S. Higgins of the William Higgins Leather company and is a most attractive young lady.

Dr. Niedringhane is a rising young professional man, of a prominent St. Louis family, but now of Granite City, Ill.

The marriage is the outcome of a love affair of some years' standing, that was at one time broken off on account of a difference in religious beliefs. It was very quietly solemnized at the parochial residence of the Rev. Father Gilligan of the new cathedral, at Newcastle and Maryland avenues. Only the members of the two families witnessed the ceremony.

Mrs. Niedringhane's host of friends here will give her most heartfelt good wishes.

WEDDING OF MISS JUDGE

AND MR. YEISER.

The marriage of Miss Mamie Judge and Mr. Joseph Yeiser was solemnized on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock at the priest's house of St. Francis de Sales church. Only a few friends and relatives witnessed the impressive ceremony which united two popular young people, and was performed by the Rev. Father Janzen.

Miss Judge is a very lovely and attractive young woman and looked especially well in her wedding costume.

Mr. Yeiser is a member of the Yeiser-McElrath Drug company, and is a rising young business man. He is the eldest son of Dr. D. A. Yeiser.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Yeiser have many friends in the city to give them good wishes. They left at noon for Buffalo and on their return will reside on South Third street.

MISSIONARY TEA.

The Missionary tea of Grace Episcopal church met with Mrs. B. E. Reed on Friday afternoon. It was the first meeting since the summer adjournment and was a most pleasant occasion. Mrs. Reed gave an interesting resume of the progress of missions. Mrs. Palmer told of Bishop Fausset's work in Idaho. Miss Emily Morrow's able paper on "The Recent General Convention in San Francisco," where the offering of the Woman's Auxiliaries was $104,219, was much enjoyed. Mrs. W. H. Gregg of Cincinnati, who was a guest of the occasion gave a most interesting account of Mission work in that city.

Light refreshments were served emphasizing the social features of these meetings.

MR. LOWRY GANT ENTERTAINS

A very delightful banquet was given at the Palmer house on Friday evening by Mr. Lowry Gant as a farewell to his friends prior to his departure for Mexico in residence. Covers were laid for twelve and the evening's pleasure was marred only by the prospect of the popular young host's departure. Mr. Gant came to Paducah from Hopkinsville a year or more ago, and has been connected with the tobacco firm of W. B. Kennedy and Co. He has made many warm friends here and is a popular favorite in the younger society set, as well as in business circles. Many toasts of regret and good wishes were given at the banquet appropriate to Mr. Gant's departure and future welfare in his new home.

'TWAS EVER THUS.

There is great probability that the pleasure yacht Brook Hill will be sold within the next few days to a party from Baton Rouge, La. This is sad news for society, and the girls will not congregate next summer with pleasure unalloyed without their stanch friend at their beck and call.

THE COMING WEEK.

The Delphic club will meet on Tuesday morning with Mrs. Mildred Davis.

THE MUSICAL CLUB WILL MEET ON TUESDAY EVENING WITH MRS. VIRGINIA LEIGH.

ABOUT FOLKS.

Mrs. Anna Mae Yeiser is a popular visitor in Madisonville, where she has a host of friends.

Mrs. Irvin S. Cobb and Miss Marie Cobb will leave in two weeks for Savannah, Ga., to visit Mrs. Cobb's parents, Major and Mrs. Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Baker will leave next week for California to live. They will make San Francisco their home.

Mrs. Caswell Bennett of Frankfort is the guest of Mrs. George Crumbaugh of North Seventh street. Mrs. Bennett is extremely bright and entertaining, and is a social favorite in Paducah, where she often visits.

Miss Lucy Turner of Wickliffe was the guest of Mrs. Samuel T. Hubbard this week. Miss Turner is one of Paducah's most charming visitors.

Mrs. E. B. Swartzbeiger left this week for St. Louis to visit her niece, Mrs. A. C. Einstein.

Mrs. James Titterback left this week for Hopkinsville, where she will visit her father for several weeks.

Dr. and Mrs. N. S. Walker of Dyersburg are visiting Mrs. Walker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Crombaugh, of North Seventh street.

Mrs. Marvin Quick and children of Nashville are visiting Mrs. Qniok's mother, Mrs. Henry Owen of Jefferson street.

Mrs. John J. Flynn and little son Jack returned this week from a several weeks' visit to Mr. Flynn at his headquarters, Fulton, Ky.

Miss Jane Skellington of Dyersburg, who has been the guest of Mrs. Robert Becker Phillips at "The Pines" for a few days, returned home the first of the week.

Mrs. C. E. Whitesides, who has been away since May 28th, returned home this week. Much of the time was spent at Lake Chautauqua, Buffalo, New York City and various places east.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Bondraut left this week for Minneapolis, Minn., to attend the Missionary Convention of the Christian church in session there. They will be absent about a week or two.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wheeler returned this week from their wedding trip to Buffalo, and are at home to friends at 437 South Fourth street.

Mrs. Angie Lee Thomas returned this week from Louisville, where she was the popular guest of her cousin, the Misses Nannie and Edith Frazer, of Third Avenue.

Mr. Lowry Gant, a popular member of the younger society crowd, has returned from a visit to his former home in Hopkinsville.

Mr. Henry Well arrived the first of the week from Boston, where he had been visiting his son, Mr. Jesse Well of Harvard University, since his return from Europe.

The date of Miss Philie Bon's wedding in Jackson, Tenn., is December 5. It will be quite a small society function. Miss Elizabeth Sennott of the city will be an attendant and will grace the occasion with all honor.

Miss Julia Scott will leave the 2st of the month for Jackson, Tenn. She will be the guest of Mrs. A. W. Foster during the Elk's Carnival there.

A BEAUTIFUL OC.

TOBER WEDDING.

The date for the marriage of Miss Edna Wallerstein to Mr. David A. Levy of St. Louis has been set for October 23. It will take place at Temple Israel at 8:30 p.m., and will be a very beautiful and impressive service. Rabbi Alexander of the city and Rabbi Finschleiter of Davenport, Ia., will perform the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradford Clark have received the plan for their new home of which Mr. Montrose P. McArdle of St. Louis is the architect and will begin the erection of it at once on West Jefferson street. It will be quite a charming addition to the West End portion of the city, where there are some beautiful homes.

After the ceremony there will be a reception at the Wallerstein home on North Seventh street that will be quite a delightful function.

Miss Wallerstein is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hormann Wallerstein and is a most popular and attractive young lady with a wide circle of friends. Mr. Reed is a rising young business man of St. Louis. The engagement was announced some months ago.

The city invitations will be issued next week and the occasion will be quite a society event. There will doubtless be a number of out-of-town guests present for the wedding.

TO RETURN TO PADUCAH.

It is said that Mr. Given Campbell of St. Louis, who has bought the Nobis property in Arcadia, will shortly erect a handsome home there and bring his family here to live. Nobis was Mr. Campbell's early home and through all his following of the strenuous life as a successful St. Louis lawyer he has kept his love for it, and has often expressed his desire and intention to live again in his boyhood home and among his own people. Should they come here and his family will be delightful acquisitions to Paducah's social life.

'TWAS EVER THUS.

There is great probability that the pleasure yacht Brook Hill will be sold within the next few days to a party from Baton Rouge, La. This is sad news for society, and the girls will not congregate next summer with pleasure unalloyed without their stanch friend at their beck and call.

CARD OF THANKS.

This our expression of gratitude to quite a number of our good citizens who have helped to sustain the Union

Rescue Mission work for the last 84 months in Palmetto, Ky., having for this purpose the distribution of the gospel and being helpful in as every possible way to those in need by holding services every night in the chapel,

431 South Third street. Held open during the day for moral and spiritual instruction. Homes visited. Sick cared for; poor and needy looked after; Bibles, Testaments, religious papers, tracks, food and raiments distributed for those without one. Aim to lessen crime, lead to a higher life and get the people into the church of the living

God. We earnestly hope the hearty co-operation of all that we may have a higher state of moral righteou-ness in our city and request that you bring your contributions of money, provisions, clothing, religious books, papers, tracts, etc., or notify us by
